Your Community Foundation

The Wyoming Community Foundation is a nonprofit, charitable organization created by and for the people of the greater Wyoming community, including our many school districts of Wyoming, Godfrey Lee, Godwin Heights, Kelloggsville, and Grandville. Established in 1990, the Community Foundation accepts current and planned gifts from individuals, families, corporations and other nonprofits to establish new or grow already endowed funds. Because of their permanency, your gift to a Community Foundation endowment fund impacts our community today and into the future forever.

"We believe it is important to give back to our community, to show our children and grandchildren that through giving, large and small, we make a difference in the lives of others; we build a better community for generations to come."
— Lillian VanderVeen, Lenger Travel Center

Every year, a portion of the earnings from the permanent funds is used to support charitable programs that benefit the city of Wyoming. The Community Foundation board reviews grant proposals from nonprofit organizations, awarding grants based upon identified funding criteria and community needs. Grants have been made for diverse purposes in our community to organizations such as Wedgewood Christian Youth and Family Services, Southkent Cable TV Commission (WKTV), Roosevelt Park Ministries, Wyoming Parks and Recreation, Rogers Lane Elementary School, Girl Scouts of Michigan Trails, and the Kent County Literacy Council to name a few. Information on how to apply for a grant is available online at www.grfoundation.org/wyoming.php.

Collective giving through the Community Foundation accelerates the creation of charitable capital for our community that will address the changing needs of our area today and tomorrow. As an affiliate of the Grand Rapids Community Foundation, we benefit from enhanced earning power, staff support and administrative efficiencies. Every gift is well managed and will have the maximum impact possible in our community.

Your Dreams

Whatever you hope to accomplish with your philanthropy, the Wyoming Community Foundation can help you achieve your charitable goals. You can give to an existing fund that fits your priorities, or establish your own named fund and select its purpose.

Named Fund for the Community Good. This type of fund provides grants to areas where they will do the most good, now and in the future as our community's needs change.

Field of Interest Fund. You select an area that is important to you such as the arts, education, aging, children and youth, or any other broad community need. Grants will be awarded to programs that will impact your specified area of interest.

Scholarship Fund. You help set the selection criteria and a volunteer committee reviews applications and awards scholarships to the most worthy students each year.

Donor Advised Fund. Much like a private foundation, this fund allows you to recommend grants to any 501(c)(3) nonprofit, without the administrative burdens of running your own foundation. Gifts to Donor Advised Funds also receive more favorable tax treatment than those to private foundations.

Nonprofit Endowment Fund. This type of fund is established to provide permanent endowment support for one or more nonprofit organizations.

Your Gifts

Gifts to the Wyoming Community Foundation come in all shapes and sizes. Cash, securities, business interests, even real estate can be used to make an outright gift or to establish a named fund. Whatever the asset or size, each and every gift is an important contribution.

Cash. Enjoy the ease of giving as much or as little as you choose at anytime that's convenient for you.

Appreciated Property. For gifts of stock, bonds, mutual funds, closely held stock and real estate, your charitable deduction will be based upon fair or appraised market value, not your original investment, and long-term capital gains tax may be avoided.

Life Insurance. By assigning ownership of a paid-up life insurance policy to the Community Foundation, you can receive an immediate charitable deduction in the amount of the policy's current computed value. If you are still making premium payments, those payments also may qualify for a charitable deduction.

401K and IRA Accounts. Simply assigning the Community Foundation as the beneficiary of your retirement account will minimize estate taxes, allow you to leave less-taxed assets for your heirs, and maximize your charitable giving.

"We make a living by what we get but we make a life by what we give"
— Sir Winston Churchill

Your Legacy

Once you have established your philanthropic goals and identified the assets to give, you can determine whether making your gift today, or in the future through a planned gift, will best meet your charitable and financial objectives. There are several ways the Community Foundation can help you supplement your current income, lower your estate taxes and increase your charitable giving.

Bequest. A simple provision that your attorney can include in your will or trust can make a gift that will continue your legacy forever.

Charitable Gift Annuity. Make a gift of cash or appreciated property now, get immediate tax benefits, provide income payments for life to yourself or a loved one, and benefit your community forever.

Charitable Trust. Place cash or property in a Charitable Remainder Trust that pays annual income to you, or another named beneficiary. At the death of the income beneficiaries, the remainder of the trust transfers to the Community Foundation and is placed into a charitable fund you have selected. A Charitable Lead Trust allows you to do the opposite: the Community Foundation receives income from the trust for a period of time and then the assets transfer to a beneficiary of your choosing.

"By giving to the Wyoming Community Foundation I'm assured that the gift I give today will be a seed that sprouts change forever."
