GRANT APPLICATION GUIDELINES

PRIORITY AREAS

The Wyoming Youth Advisory Committee (YAC) makes grants to programs that benefit youth in the Wyoming area. Grants range in size from $300-$1,000, with a total of $3,800 available to award.

In a survey conducted in the fall of 2020 by members of the YAC, the types of programs that youth identified as most helpful in addressing these issues were:

- Psychological and economic impacts of COVID-19
- Overwhelming pressure to succeed academically
- Help getting into college
- Paying for college
- Developing healthy habits
- Discrimination (due to race, gender, sexual orientation, income, religion, disability)
- Tutoring/homework assistance

ELIGIBILITY

501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations, government entities (including schools), or community groups willing to obtain a fiscal sponsor may apply for grants for programs that benefit youth in Wyoming. The YAC values projects that promote inclusiveness and that do not discriminate in hiring of staff or providing services on the basis of race, gender, religion, marital status, sexual orientation, age, national origin or disability. Applications from religious organizations for a non-religious purpose will be considered.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Grant applications must be submitted using the online portal, <https://grantcentral.smartsimple.com>, by 11:59 p.m. on Friday, February 11, 2022. Applicants are notified of the YAC's decision the following May.

HELPFUL HINTS

Historically, the Youth Advisory Committee has looked more favorably on proposals for projects that:

- Have clear goals with foreseeable long-term benefits for youth in Wyoming.
- Are original, unique, and CREATIVE!
- Involve youth in program development and/or implementation.
- Address a need area identified in our survey, and benefit a significant number of youth.
- Have limited funds and lack of other resources
